

What is the best way to handle mildew?

Mildew and fungus can be removed by washing surfaces vigorously with a solution of one tablespoon of detergent, one to two pints of liquid bleach and one gallon of water. Then the area needs to be rinsed thoroughly. Treat severely infested areas a second time after an interval of 1 to 2 weeks to further promote elimination of growth. Allow walls to dry a minimum 24 hours before the application of a primer.